

Snellville Days Festival-Since 1974

Year	Theme	Grand Marshal
2015	Parade theme – Superheroes	Batman
2014	Parade theme – Dreams Do Come True	Rennie Curran-NFL player and Brookwood HS Alumnus
2013	Parade theme – Happy 40 th Birthday, Snellville Days Remembering Our Past, Honoring Our Present, Celebrating Our Future	Louis Williams-Atlanta Hawks
2012	Parade theme – Proud to Be...	PARADE RAINED OUT Jordan Rager of NBC's "The Voice"
2011	Bringing Families Together	Southeast Gwinnett Cooperative Ministry
2010	Community First...Celebrating Jimmy and Mary Jane Gresham	Mary Jane Gresham, longest Snellville Days volunteer
2009	Today, Tomorrow, Forever	Kimberly Gittings, Miss Georgia-USA 2009
2008	A One Time Event That's Lasted 35 Years	Vietnam Veterans; Jim Freeman, Richard Chambers, John Hayes
2007	Welcome to Our Town...Honoring the Past	Kathryn Bird, the "Longest Living Snellville Native"
2006	Look At Us Now	T Graham Brown
2005	A Place To Call Home	Three local Foster Parent Families & Snellville's Idol, Diana DeGarmo
2004	Our American Idols	Outstanding Reps of SnlV from education, public service and business
2003	Everybody's Somebody in Snellville...Celebrating 30 Years of Success	David Greene, University of Georgia Quarterback
2002	Our American Spirit	Parade Cancelled Due to Rain
2001	People Coming Together	Parkview High School Football State Champions
2000	Snellville Salutes the American Hero	General Raymond G. Davis, USMC
1999	Year of the Athlete	Lex Luger and Buff Bagwell, WCW wrestlers
1998	Welcome Home	1997 South Gwinnett High School AAAA Girls Fast Pitch Softball Team
1997	Beach Party	Brookwood Broncos AAAA State Champion Football Team
1996	Snellville Welcomes the World	Jason Elam - Denver Broncos Place Kicker
1995	Field of Dreams	South Gwinnett High School Girls Championship Basketball Team
1994	Snellville Welcomes the World	Governor Zell Miller
1993	Let Us Entertain You	Jerry Reed, country music star and actor from "Smokey and the Bandit"
1992	Visions '92	Kim Hardee, Miss Georgia 1991 and Atlanta Falcon Scott Case
1991	Georgia on My Mind	Melly Meadows, Scarlett O'Hara spokesperson for MGA/UA Home Video
1990	Let Freedom Ring	Tom Wopat, star of "The Dukes of Hazzard"
1989	Through the Years	The Creel Sisters, triplets who starred in the movie "Parent Trap III"
1988	Southern Charm	Charlie Daniels, country music singer
1987	Snellville Salutes our Youth	Michael Damian, on daytime soap opera "The Young and the Restless"
1986	The Pride is Back	Bill Curry, Georgia Tech Head Football Coach
1985	A Salute to American Heroes	Steve Lundquist, Olympic gold medal swimmer
1984	Everybody is Somebody in Snellville - Winning Stories	Tom T. Hall, country music singer, "The Story Teller"
1983	Everybody is Somebody in Snellville	George Lindsey, known for his role as "Goober" on "The Andy Griffith Show"
1982	Everybody is Somebody in Snellville	Sorrell Brooke, actor best known as "Boss Hogg" on "The Dukes of Hazzard"
1981	Snellville: Country and Proud of It!	Jerry Clower, country comedian
1980	Salute to the American Cowboy	Clayton Moore, actor best known for his role as "The Lone Ranger"
1979	Walt Disney Theme	Ross and Wilson, Atlanta radio disc jockeys
1978	Snellville Salutes the 50's	Vince Dooley, University of Georgia Head Football Coach
1977	Fun & Fantasy	U.S. Senator Sam Nunn
1976	Snellville Salutes America	Lt. Governor, Zell Miller
1975	Pride in America	Ludlow Porch, radio talk show host and author

1974 Snellville Days Festival first held as 1-time event to raise money for Briscoe Park

Thomas W. Briscoe, former Mayor of Snellville