Cobblestone Report
Snellville DDA
September 17, 2025

REPORTS

B. Cobblestone Report

Property Management

E-102 – Jesus has completing work on the ceiling tiles, front lights, and other office light fixture replacements. Over the next few weeks, he will finish the crown molding for the front office.

All of the exterior timbers have been pressure washed and they should be re-sealed with water sealant by September 17th.

Staff called a locksmith out to the property. It appears that the door frames of Units E-101 and E-102 had incurred damage to the doorframes. Apparently, someone had tried to close these doors with the deadbolts extended resulting in gouged wood on the door frames.

The annual lock inspection is underway.

C-105 – The locksmith replaced the deadbolt to this unit as it was no longer working
The locksmith will return again soon to inspect an additional 6 units.

Marketing and Leasing

An updated video showing available properties has been filmed will is available on the City of Snellville website; Crexi, and Loopnet.

Available Spaces

Open spaces -7:

- Executive Suite C-214 - Staff received a call from a special events company wanting to use both C-214 and C-215 as a location for preparing paperwork. The possible tenants did not reach back out after viewing the property.
- Executive Suite C-215 -
- F-201 - Staff worked with a hospice company and sent the board their application. The prospective tenant refused to sign a personal guarantee and the company's credit was at a minimum standard. A business partner was then noted but no paperwork was submitted regarding this person in a timely manner. Staff withdrew the lease.
- G-200 – The suites in Building G received several calls from a non-profit organization, a learning center, a counseling center, and a center receiving donations. To date, no applications have been submitted.
- G-201 -
- G-202 -
- E-102 – The space will be listed for lease and its updated video will be uploaded upon the completion of renovations.
